Ames High Loyalty Song

*Students of Ames Senior High,
Proud of our school are we.
Cheering the Orange and the Black
Onward to victory. Rah! Rah!*

*Comrades in work and play,
Loyal and true are we,
Doing our best for our high school.
Ames High aims high!*

Senior Class History

LIGHTS! Camera! Sound! Thus the "Production of '36" began. As Sophomores, we played only the minor roles in high school life, but near the end of that year many showed signs of becoming featured stars. Most everyone found some activity in which he was interested and soon became very busy.

While the camera clicked on; the plot thickened as we advanced to the role of Juniors. The main characters were portrayed by Frank Snyder as President; Willard Madden as Vice President; Bob Schreiber as Secretary; and Maurine Park as Treasurer under the direction of Miss Eva White and Miss Madaline Canvin. A successful performance of Lucky Break enabled the class to entertain its upper classmen with the annual Junior-Senior Frolic which was held at the Memorial Union on the night of May 29, 1935.

The climax of the play began as the spotlight fell on us, the class of '36. The entire cast was made up of ambitious actors and actresses who sought a successful graduation. Leading roles were played by Jack Smith, Rex Gilchrist, Wanda Mecaskey, and Mary Bush, with Miss Ada Wood and Miss Ferne Hartsook as directors.

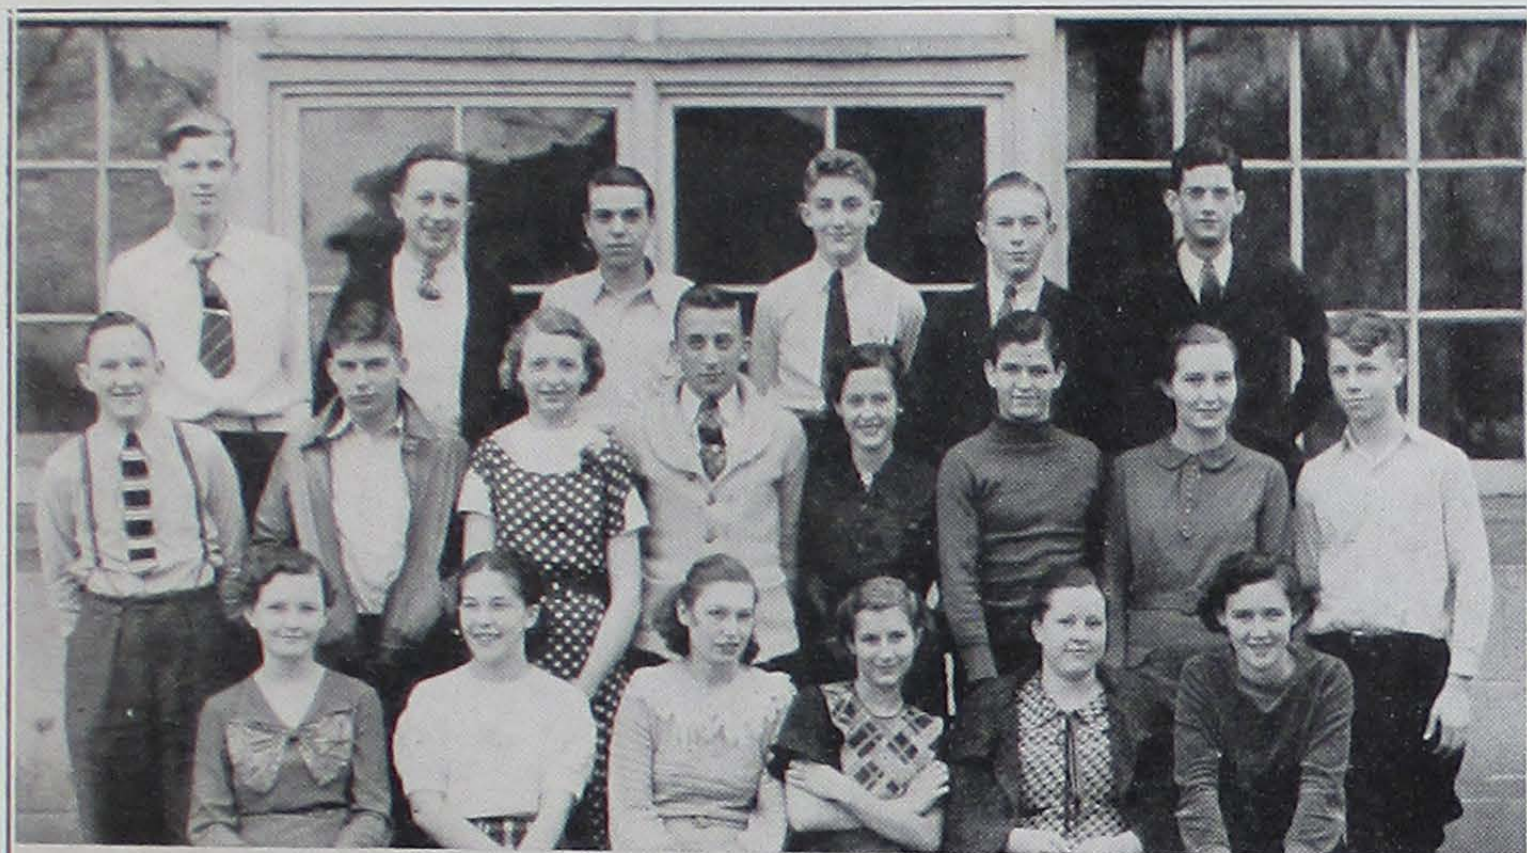

During the three years of high school life our class has taken an active part in all activities, but it is an average one with an "Ames High aims high" spirit that will never be forgotten by any of its members.

Junior Class History

THE picture, "The History of the Class of '37" is on! Roger Fritsch, June Hughes, Dean Berry, and David Sayre play the leading roles. During the film they decide such problems as the selection of the class ring and the planning of the Junior-Senior Frolic.

An athletic feature has just flashed across the screen! Several members of the class are taking part in football and basketball.

The next picture is one of the dramatic field. We see a number of Juniors being taken into Dramatics. Later on, several of these make good in the fall play, Growing Pains, the Junior Class Play, Big Hearted Herbert, and the spring play, The Copperhead.

In the next scene we find that music has a very popular place in the picture. Mixed Chorus, the Glee Clubs, Orchestra, and Band are all there, and many of the class of '37 are featured artists.

Home Room and Student Council activities now claim the stage. We recognize those who are taking an active part in solving and reducing the problems of the whole school.

The last reel takes up the activities of Girl Reserve and Hi-Y in which the entire Junior class joins, profiting greatly.

As the movie comes to an end, we see that the class of '37 has had a very pleasant year and wishes to extend its appreciation to its officers and sponsors for their valuable leadership and cooperation.

Sophomore History

AS the "Production of '36" began, the "Class of '38" was just beginning their careers in the studio of high school life. Not having had much experience in this profession, they started out cautiously but gradually found the roles suited to them in the high school activities.

Some found their interests directed to Hi-Y and Girl Reserve. Although they were not given the leads, some will surely find success in the next two years.

Music and Dramatics beckoned the more ambitious members, and some were given early chances to show their talents in plays and contests.

Others were found to be interested in sports and a few future stars were spotted among them. Various other activities were entered into by the remaining few.

Thus we find the "Class of 38" beginning to make history for itself, while two more years lie between them and stardom.

THE Student Council, composed of the fifteen home room presidents and Miss Curtis as adviser, is the student governing body of the school. Besides the regular meetings, which are held the third period every Monday, special meetings are called when necessary.

One of the accomplishments of the 1935-36 Council has been to establish a student court to deal with the serious tardy problem. The judge, vice president of the council, presides over the court, composed of a clerk and six jurymen. The clerk and three jurymen are from the student body, while the remaining three are elected from the Council. The court has done much to reduce tardies.

All awards given by the school must be approved by the Awards Committee and the Council.

EDITH BURMA.

Senior Senate

SENIOR SENATE is a representative group of Seniors whose duties are to work out Senior commencement problems. Each Senior home room has two representatives on the Senate, one being the president of that home room, and the other elected. Officers of the Senior class are also members of the Senate. The president of the Senior class presides over all meetings.

Senior Senate chose the gardenia as the class flower for this year, and blue and silver as the class colors. The members decided that a motto was not necessary as the high school motto is "Ames High aims high."

TO start the new administration right, both semester cabinets held a joint meeting in September at Camp Canivita, the local Camp Fire Girls' cabin north of town. Plans for the year were made at this supper-fireside.

Because of the unusually hot weather, the frost-bite sales were good during the football season. Black and orange pencils were also sold as well as football badges.

Dispensing with the usual Christmas party for poor children, the Girl Reserves and Hi-Y decorated Christmas trees and gave them to poor families.

A box social with the Hi-Y raised part of the money for Friendship Week. The speaker for this year was Dr. Harold Lancaster of Ottumwa, and under his leadership this year's conference proved to be one of the best ever held in Ames High.

HI-Y represents the Y. M. C. A. of the school and as such is one of the most active clubs of Ames High. It is known throughout the state that Ames has the largest group in Iowa.

The club has continued its past program this year by having firesides for the boys with the best speakers available, and by continuing the hobby groups. Throughout the year, the theme of "Personality" has been carried out.

The Hi-Y cabinet has added new features to the old. It has been active in starting a new club in the Central Junior High. Also among its old activities are the Friendship Conference, basketball tournaments, a father-son banquet, and the sale of candy at athletic events.

National Honor Society

President	WILLIAM BLISS
Vice President	KATHERINE DODDS
Secretary	MARY LOU CLIFF
Treasurer	MAURINE PARK

OUT of every class that enters Ames High, fifteen percent is allowed membership in National Honor Society. In addition to being in the upper one-fourth of his class scholastically, one must be outstanding in character, leadership, and service.

The method of selecting members was slightly altered this year. Five percent were initiated at the end of the last school year and five percent were announced in the early part of the first semester this fall. In March the last five percent were initiated.

One of the purposes of this organization is to promote better school spirit and cooperation. The National Honor Society members every year select certain projects to help carry out this purpose. This year the society took charge of the American Red Cross campaign conducted in Ames High. It also helped raise money for the Will Rogers Memorial Fund.

RUTH HENDRICKSON.

Quill and Scroll

President BOB MENZE
 Vice President DON BERESFORD
 Secretary MARY LOIS ARNOLD

QUILL AND SCROLL is an international honor society for the purpose of rewarding high school journalists who have been outstanding in some field of journalistic achievement.

To become a member of Quill and Scroll one must be of Junior or Senior standard or a post-graduate; be in the upper one-third of his class scholastically; have done outstanding work in some phase of journalism; be approved by those governing publications; have samples of his work approved by the international executive secretary.

Due to the fact that journalism is now a part of the curriculum, the membership of Quill and Scroll is much larger than when first started. This year there were fifteen active members the first semester with more being initiated at the end of the second semester. Meetings were held bi-monthly, business meetings alternating with social.

National Forensic League

President	GERTRUDE MANN
Vice President	LAWRENCE OWENS
Secretary-Treasurer	EUGENE ARMSTRONG

FOR membership in the National Forensic League a student must do some outstanding work in declamatory, debate, or extemporaneous speech.

There are four merits which may be awarded; for ten points, the Degree of Merit; for thirty points, the Degree of Honor; for sixty points, the Degree of Excellence; and for one hundred points, the Degree of Distinction is awarded. The honorary pin for the club is the key.

LAURENCE OWENS.

National Thespian Society

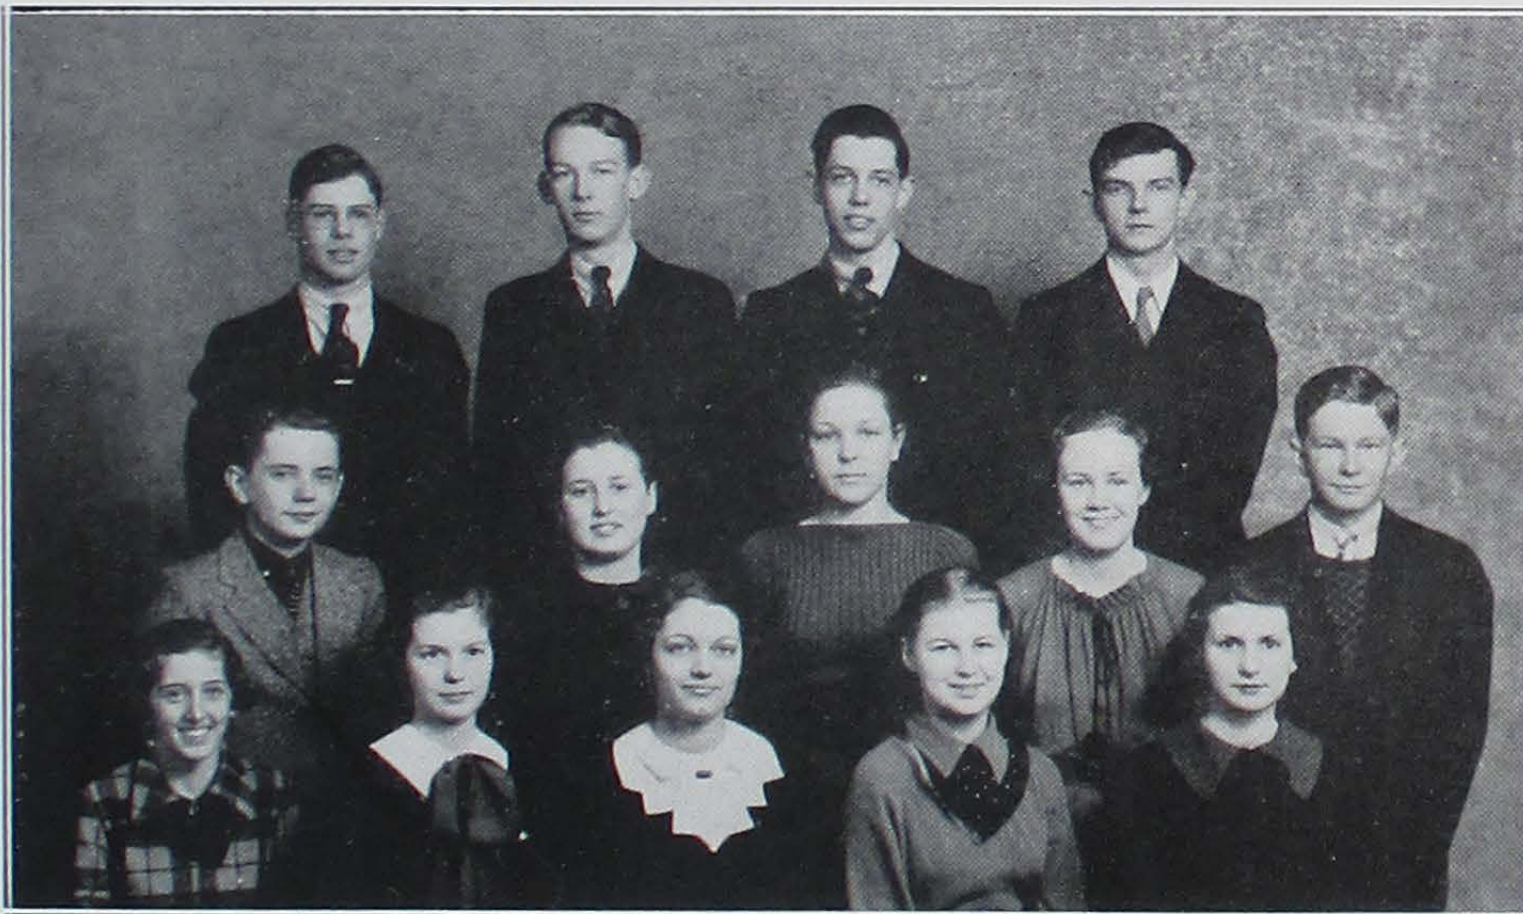

President	BETTY AMES
Secretary	DOROTHY ROOT
Treasurer	DOROTHY SIBERELL

TO become a member of the National Thespians is to obtain the highest honor in dramatic work awarded in the high school. This is a non-secret and a non-social organization. Points are given to members in Dramatic Club for special acting and working on production staffs. The persons with the highest number of points are selected to become members of this society.

Each Thespian receives a subscription to the magazine The High School Thespian. The main project of the Thespians this year is broadcasting. For one broadcast a P.T.A. play was presented. Another time each Thespian prepared and read a paper on some phase of dramatic work. A series of one-act plays also were presented weekly. The Thespians sponsored the Mothers' Day program which has become an annual event in the activities of the Dramatic Club. The climax of their work was the Easter play produced by both active and alumni Thespians.

The purpose of the National Thespians is to serve as an incentive for better work in dramatics in the high school.

LIBRARY CLUB, organized by Miss Ada Wood last year, has been very active this year. The members serve in the library two hours a week during their study halls and one week a semester after school. The officers are elected every semester.

The club meets every six weeks for a pot luck supper and discusses library problems. Among the interesting meetings held this year was the one on January 9, 1936, at the City Library at which time Miss Davidson reviewed some of the new books.

THE Art Club was organized when Mr. Lorenz came to Ames to take charge of the art work for Ames High and Central. Under his capable management several splendid courses have developed. These courses are taught in a most attractive art room which displays students' work, and furnishes a place to work out interior decoration problems.

Those who availed themselves of the opportunities of the Art Club have gained an appreciation of the artistic in life and many who have unusual ability have developed their talents along the lines of their own special interests.

AFTER numerous debates, Debate Club chose a first team consisting of Eugene Armstrong, Mary Bush, Irving Merrill, and David Sayre. This year Ames debaters for the first time made a tour that included Council Bluffs, Omaha, and Sioux City. Although Ames has held the championship of the Northeast District for several years, the teams fell short of continuing this record by one decision.

At the Drake McCahill Tournament the squad went through six rounds to the qualifying round for the semi-finals, were defeated by Oskaloosa, and tied Ft. Dodge for fourth place.

Big Hearted Herbert

IT HAS long been an open question as to whether mother or father knows best how to bring up the children. In the Junior class play this year father thought he knew. Although Herbert may have been a great man in his factory, at home he seemed to be unable to adjust his viewpoints toward the rising generation. He thought what was good enough for him in his day was good enough for his children.

He storms, fumes, threatens, and humiliates his family before guests. The situation is changed at a dinner for his best customer when his wife and children put into effect the practices that he preached. Thus harmony is restored by each getting what he desired.

THE Ames High Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mrs. Ferne Gaunt, has just completed another successful year. The club has presented two three-act plays this year. The first was Growing Pains, a comedy of adolescence. The leads in this play were taken by Richard Miller and Dorothy Root. In the spring of the year the club presented a Civil War drama, The Copperhead, with John Wentz, Ora Clark and Jo MacRae sharing the honors.

The club's entry in the Drake play tournament, Chrysanthemum, was awarded second place. Some unusual work on costumes, lighting, and stage settings was done for this one-act Chinese play.

MIXED CHORUS started out the year with new hopes and vows for a better year than ever before. Many new members came in, but under the capable direction of Miss Edna Bower, this new group very quickly adapted themselves to the regular chorus routine. During the first semester, most of the time was spent in individual training.

In December, Mixed Chorus took part in the annual Christmas pageant given by all the music organizations. Soon after, members began work on numbers for contest, which was held in April at Mason City.

Several church programs were given in the spring, and at the end of the year Mixed Chorus felt that it had been a very satisfactory year.

Boys' Glee Club

President	DON BERESFORD
Vice President	LOUIS VANDER LINDEN
Secretary	MERVIN COOVER
Librarian	DICK CAINE

UNDER the direction of Miss Edna Bower, twenty-eight members of Boys' Glee Club participated in an organization whose purpose is to furnish a place where boys can sing the songs they enjoy and to teach them how to sing these songs well.

Working hard, and cooperating with the other vocal groups of the school, the Boys' Glee Club helped in putting on a fine Christmas program. Several members helped themselves in a voice training class held after school and thus aided the whole club in its qualities.

To start the week out with a song in the regular Monday first period meeting helped many a boy to continue cheerfully on his way. It is known that Boys' Glee Club has served as an aid in the past; may it continue to brighten the world in the future.

DON BERESFORD.

Girls' Glee Club

THE Girls' Glee Club promotes in all possible ways the improvement of the individual voice and the appreciation of good vocal music. Due to an increased interest in glee club work, it was necessary to divide the girls into two separate organizations the second semester. The group meeting on Monday and Wednesday afternoons served as a training class for glee club members. Officers of this group were: Josephine Rhea, president, Barbara Penny, secretary, and Norvella Menten, treasurer.

The group meeting on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, being made up of the older, more experienced girls, spent the majority of their time in preparation for the music contest. Officers were: Margot Bacon, president, Jeanne Miller, vice president, Laura Bell, secretary, and Mildred Inman, librarian.

Orchestra

President	IRVING MERRILL
Secretary-Treasurer	MARY LEFFLER
Librarian	JEAN WHITFIELD

ORCHESTRA is a young organization in the ages of the members and it will probably be some time before this music group is as Mr. Day would like it.

The biggest job Mr. Day has with the orchestra is to have the groups divided so that the correct quality of tone is produced. This year we won a "superior" rating at the sub-district contest held at Nevada in March. This entitled us to go to the district contest at Mason City where we competed against Boone High School and won an "excellent" rating.

As the orchestra becomes more skilled in its different field you will be more interested in this organization as an active one of Ames High.

Band

President	IRVING MERRILL
Secretary-Treasurer	MARY LEFFLER
Librarian	HARRISON DONALD

THE Ames High band played and marched at all home football games, and also at the game played between Ames and Boone at Boone. A smaller pep band of twenty-five members played at the basketball games and the county basketball tournament, often with a student director conducting.

Several new organizations within the band were started this year. Notable among these were the brass sextet, the clarinet quartet, and the parents' organization. The parents' organization was organized to finance and arrange for new equipment and transportation. They helped purchase new instruments for the band.

Besides playing at these various occasions, the band entered contest; several solos were entered in contest also.

CIRCULATION of the Web reached a new high this year with 400 copies. Issues also were increased to seven a semester. The Pic, a national roto-gravure section for high school papers, was inaugurated at the close of the first semester.

In addition to the three permanent staff members, the positions of news editors, sports editors, assistant advertising manager, copy reader, proof readers, exchange editor, and makeup editors were filled by other members of the journalism class who were assigned to a different position each issue. Besides writing articles and filling places on the staff, many sold advertising.

On Saturdays the staff worked on proof reading, makeup, and headlines at the Milepost where the Web was printed. In this way both theoretical and practical experience in journalism was obtained.

Pep Club and Cheer Squad

President LEAH RUTH
 Vice President VIRGINIA DARLINGTON
 Secretary-Treasurer MARY BUSH

EVERY year thirty-six girls who are outstanding for their pep and school spirit are chosen to become members of the Ames High Pep Club. The purpose of this club is to arouse enthusiasm for all events in which our school participates.

During the football season the Pep Club put on various exhibitions between halves of the games. At basketball games the Pep Club's seating formation was that of an "A" and later it was changed to a grouping of four lines of nine each.

The Pep Club also took charge of selling football and basketball season tickets this year.

The members of the cheer squad are Hermon Arrasmith, Bill Winton, Jack Pilgrim and Jean VanScoy, sponsored by Miss Helen Hadish.

Varsity Club

Secretary-Treasurer	BOB MENZE
Librarian	ALEX JEFFREY

VARSITY CLUB of Ames High has as its membership twenty-four members, all of whom have won their major A's in some sport such as football, basketball, tennis, golf, and track. The club's sponsor is Ray Donels, head of the physical education department. This club sponsors many curricular activities, including the annual free throw tournaments, intramural basketball, track meets, tennis meets, and other contests.

The officers of the Varsity Club are also the officers of A Club, an inactive organization which is made up of members who have been outstanding in some organization. The highest honor attainable in high school, the annual A award, which is given each year to the Senior who has been most outstanding, is given by this club.

Intramural

INTRAMURAL sports are rapidly growing all over the United States in colleges, high schools, and even grade schools. Last year Ames High set such a good record in the participation of sports that now Central Junior High has an intramural program.

There have been several really outstanding players this year in badminton, ping pong, and basketball. In badminton, Beresford and Schreiber topped the list. Without a doubt, Bob Schreiber is the champion ping pong player of the season. He filled the shoes of Wyman Wilson, who was last year's champion.

The boys of Ames High take off their hats to the former director, Mr. L. V. Loy, who started intramural sports in the school and carried on a successful program for several years. Mr. Loy's record is now being very ably supported by Mr. Swedell.

Football Summary

AMES 31

NEVADA 0

Ames High opened their season by walloping the county seat players, collecting thirty-one points to Nevada's none. The Cyclones were far superior in strength and ability, playing most of the game in Nevada territory. Ames scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, adding three more and an extra point in the second half.

JEFFERSON 0

Playing under the lights on the Jefferson field, Ames demonstrated the caliber of play that won the Central Iowa conference title last year. The Little Cyclones made both touchdowns in the first half, when Owens marched down the field to score and later tossed a pass to Ryan for the second counter.

AMES 31

NORTH DES MOINES 0

Continuing to prove that they were made of championship material, the Little Cyclones smothered North High of Des Moines 31 to 0 on the Lincolnway field. Ames fans were well pleased with the showing made by the whole team in the one-sided affair. There were many outstanding runs and passes.

MARSHALLTOWN 0

Ames settled down after dividing honors during the first half to win their first conference game of the season. Followed by two hundred local fans, the Little Cyclones went to Franklin Field at Marshalltown and displayed a beautiful brand of football. The entire team was clicking as Owens ran over the goal line three times. Briley's work at center was outstanding.

OSKALOOSA 0

The Little Cyclones continued the string of homecoming victories by defeating Oskaloosa High. It was the most severe defeat suffered by Oskaloosa in the history of Ames-Oskaloosa football relationship. However, Ames High was kept plenty busy keeping the All-State Gallagher and his cohorts from scoring. It would be difficult to pick out any outstanding player for Ames. Every member on the team was at his best.

ROOSEVELT 6

Ames suffered its only defeat of the year at the hands of the Roosevelt Roughriders of Des Moines. Both teams were handicapped by the muddy field. The winning touchdown came in the fourth quarter when a pass came from Barnes to Ted Grefe—former Ames end—who had slipped behind the Ames secondary, snagged the pass, and ran over for a touchdown. Incidentally, those six points were the only points scored against Ames during the entire season.

GRINNELL 0

The Little Cyclones maintained their standing in the Central Iowa Conference by overcoming the Grinnell Pioneers. Ames was almost stunned by the opening drive of the Pioneers but dug in and prevented the visitors from scoring; then outplayed them during the rest of the game. Ryan accounted for two of Ames' touchdowns. Bliss and Smith loomed up strong on defense.

BOONE 0

Ames High became Central Iowa Conference champions for the second consecutive year by downing their ancient rivals, Boone High; only after overcoming the unusual handicap of playing in three inches of snow.

The contest was a kicking duel between Owens and Enich, Boone fullback. Ames' score came in the final period when a pass to Ryan was completed on the one yard line. On the second try Bliss plunged over the line for the touchdown.

Maurice Cox was elected honorary captain after the game, as the successful season ended.

Second Team Football

SECOND team football was coached this year by our new assistant coach, Kenneth Wells. As usual, they had a very successful football season, winning four out of five contests. The margin of one point ruined a perfect season when the gridders lost a contest to the Marshalltown seconds by a score of nine to eight. Marshalltown scored a touchdown and a field goal, while Ames gathered a touchdown and a safety.

The team was rather small but continued to improve all during the 1935 season and probably will strengthen the first team considerably next year. There were many players who were outstanding last year and should make first team competition. This group includes Glen Cunningham, Virgil Weeks, John O'Neil, Allan Gibb, Dale Winklepleck, Glenn Sills, and Joe Taylor.

State Basketball Champs

COUNTY champions, Central Iowa champions, Sectional champions, District champions, and State Champions! Thus ended the best basketball season Ames High School has ever experienced.

With their eyes on the State championship ever since they had been in seventh grade, seven major and five minor lettermen began practice for the successful season early last fall at the Field House.

The season's only setback was at Roosevelt High of Des Moines, where Ames lost a hard fought one point decision to the Roughriders.

Coach Ray Donels used his reserve five and the second team in the county tournament. They continued the string of victories by defeating Zearing, Roland, and Nevada for the Class A championship.

Then began the title drive which started at the Sectional Tournament at Boone, where Ames conquered Woodward, Roland, and Boone. Next was the District at Marshalltown where Ames added two more victories, Marshalltown and Newton being the victims.

With 1500 Ames fans to boost them on, the Little Cyclones of Ames High went to Des Moines where the State Finals were held. Defeating Wellsburg, Creston, Ottumwa, and Mason City, Ames became the State Champions of Iowa. Ames' defensive and offensive tactics were the most outstanding in the tournament.

Due to the fact that no one person was outstanding on the team, no honorary captain was elected. Don Beresford was the leading scorer of the regular season, while Bob Menze led the attack during the State Finals.

Golf

"Hey! Be quiet when a person's shooting!"
"Say, Juny, got an extra tee?"
"Where'd my new Kro-Flite go?"
"How's this grip, Roberts?"

THESE and many other pet phrases fill the air on the first tee when the Ames High golf squad is out for practice some balmy April day.

The members of the 1935 golf squad were Juny Vifquain, Bob Schreiber, Russell Cooley, Maurice Smith, John Siberell, Wendell Allan, Rex Gilchrist, Bob Thompson, Howard Hickok, and Ned Coover.

During the season, matches were played with Boone, Roosevelt, North High of Des Moines, East High of Des Moines, and East Waterloo. Roosevelt and Boone were victors over Ames, but Ames was victorious over East, North, and East Waterloo. A team composed of Vifquain, Schreiber, Cooley, and Smith placed third in the State High School Tournament.

Tennis

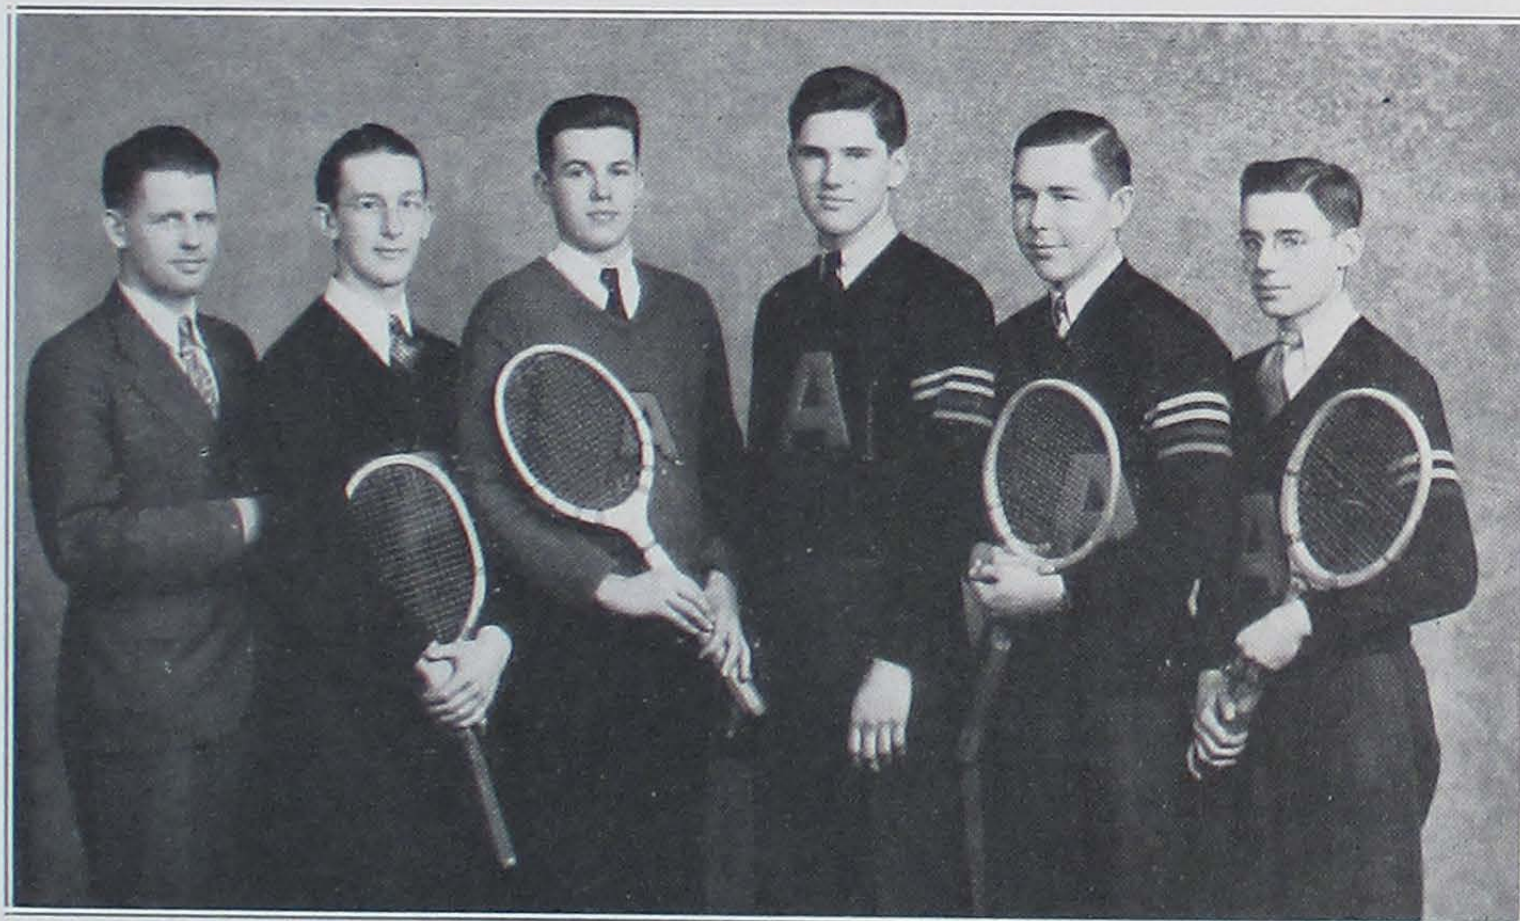

THE 1935 Ames High tennis team finished the season with an unusually fine record. Not a defeat was marked up against them in dual competition. In fact only one match, a doubles encounter against Roosevelt, was lost. In addition the local netsters finished high in both the State Tournament and in the Ames Invitational Meet which was held for the first time last spring. The doubles team of Owens and Moser were the champions in both tourneys, with Menze and Bliss the runners-up in the Invitational Meet.

The 1935 team was a well-balanced outfit with seven boys of fairly equal ability. Six of them, Charles Durham, Paul Moser, Junior Owens, Bob Menze, Bill Bliss, and Dick Young received major awards for their work. Don Beresford earned a minor letter. Durham and Moser, the only Seniors on the team, were elected co-captains.

The dual meet record was:

The Sophomores, although winning no games this year, have an excellent team and will be hard to beat next year.

To be eligible for a minor award, a girl must have earned 500 points. To receive a major award, one must have earned 1,000 points. After receiving her major award, and if she continues to work for points, she receives a pillow top. Points are earned through the keeping of health charts, outside activities, being chosen for a team, perfect attendance at practices, and numerous other activities.

The G. A. A. Council meets bi-monthly. Pins were introduced this year, being given to the girls after they have been initiated into the organization.

COMEDY

Past Attractions of Ames High School

- SEPTEMBER School once more has begun.
 9th Play and Pleasure now are done.
 Our teachers dear we find the same
 'Cept Johnny Harms who's changed a name.
 And three new catechists on the staff.
 To make us miserable and arouse our wrath.
- 13th The first football game was played today
 And after 'twas over and we'd all gone away,
 Nevada lay strewn all over the ground,
 They were no match for our eleven—they found.
- 23rd The first "shin-dig" of the year was fought
 And, believe it or not, 'nuf tickets were bought
 To clear all expenses and tide us through
 So school dances may continue for me and for you.
- OCTOBER Homecoming comes but once a year
 19th Bringing to all good fun and cheer
 It all began on a Friday night
 With pep meeting closed in bonfire light.
 The game was won with the greatest of ease
 And maybe you think the crowd wasn't pleased.
 That night to the Union we all did go
 To eat at the banquet and enjoy the show
 So very well planned by our alumni true
 In their Alumni organization—this year new.
- 31st This marks the date so welcome each fall
 For our teachers all answer "Convention's Call."
 And leave us with double assignments—you bet
 Lest we forget, lest we forget!
- NOVEMBER Growing Pains was the name of the play
 8th Which took most of Ames to the Field House today
 And many were they who cried long and loud
 "Yes, Fernie Gaunt, of you and the club we're proud."
- 11th And this is a day we'll not soon forget
 For victory in our ears is ringing yet.
 We not only buried Boone beneath the snow
 But also won the Conference as all of you know.
- 28th Thanksgiving vacation—again it came.
 Back to our forefathers dates its fame,
 When they—good people—wished to pray
 And give thanks to God in their own way,
 By taking off the whole day through
 We owe them lots, me and you,
 Cause we don't have to go to school.

THE SPIRIT

- DECEMBER 'Twas the week before Christmas
 14th When all through each hall
 Not a creature was stirring,
 For 'twas the eve of the "Ball."
 The gym was all decked in streamers so gay,
 And while all of us danced, Eddie Allen did play.
 Wanda was crowned queen of us all
 And we all endorsed it a successful Snowball.
- 20th Christmas vacation was welcomed, you bet.
 For it gave us all a chance to forget
 Assignments and teachers who plague us to tears,
 Vacation—the life saver—all of that queers.
 With parties and coasting and skating and such
 Who could help but enjoy it ever so much?
- JANUARY Second semester was started today
 17th And school went on in the usual way
 New schedules, new classes, new people and such,
 But it takes more than these to help us—much.
- An old-fashioned Box Social was held in the gym
 To increase our finances, which were very slim.
 For Friendship Conference was close at hand
 And a speaker was more than our purses could stand.
 But we made enough money to meet all the bills,
 And had a good Conference in spite of winter chills.
- FEBRUARY The Junior Class, Big Hearted Herbert, presented
 7th And we all left the fieldhouse pleased and contented.
 The cast was well chosen, the play was well done,
 And now at the Frolic we're insured of much fun.
- 24th Friendship Conference is an annual event
 to And to us this year Dr. Lancaster was sent.
 28th "Friends" was the theme of the message he brought
 And a worth while conference all of us thought.
- 28th Our athletes one more title have won,
 For the good work in basketball they have done.
 Ames is conference champions for the first time to date
 And both title in football and basketball we rate.
- MARCH Spring vacation came and went
 18th And of those three days not a minute was spent
 In sleeping or studying, or other things nice,
 Instead each pursued his own secret vice.
 And when we came back to the old grind once more,
 We slept in our class rooms and enjoyed a good snore.
- 28th Our basketball team is composed of real men,
 Each man's a sharp shooter and they number to ten.
 They decided Conference title wasn't enough
 And wanted to show the State their stuff.

Amid the crowds' cheering and Mayor Allan's yell
We won the State Title and how our chests did swell.

APRIL
15th
Copperhead was the play that Dramatic Club gave,
And about it we still like to rave.
It was surely an example of fine work and art,
For each one was outstanding in his own part.

17th
and
18th
Ames High Musicians to Mason City did go
Because of their rhythm and ability to sing la-ti-do.
The band, orchestra, glee clubs, sextet and chorus,
Played in such a way, that they managed to floor us.

Drake Tournament, Senior class play, Commencement are events
yet to come,
But when THE SPIRIT went to press they hadn't been done.
So, my children, this poetry at last is through,
So to remember these events, is up to you.

IT'S A MAN'S WORLD OR O CARELESS LOVE

Time: FIFTH PERIOD

Characters: MISS WHITE
ANNE MARIE TAFF
BEZZER KNAPP
MEMBERS OF THE CLASS.

MISS W.: "Boynton, could you tell me what XX stands for?"

BEZZER: "a—a—20"

MISS W.: "Of course. Now Anne Marie, what does LXX stand for?"

ANNE T.: (Who has been day dreaming while looking out of the window.)
"Would you please restate the question. I couldn't hear. Bezzer was talking."

MISS W.: "I said what does LXX stand for?"

ANNE T.: (Gazing dreamily at Knappy). "Love and Kisses!"

A very quick curtain! ! ! !

But It Isn't

*The ancients thought the world was flat;
I'm really not surprised at that.
We'd find it flat I dare say,
If we were living in their day.
Just think they had no Boone game;
No "Rough Riders" to corral and tame.
No Student Council acts to make them mad;
No flunks to drive them to the bad.
No self written excuses to get them canned;
No girls, so badly in demand.
No "Free Lances" to stir up a mess;
No dances either, then, I guess.
No vaccinations then by gum;
Which cost those who had it a tidy sum.
No crowded buses they had to ride;
And they missed lots of things beside.
And so I say no wonder that,
The ancients thought the world was flat.*

1. One snake has about 297 vertebrae in his back.
2. If the Atlantic Ocean were twice as large as it now is, the Pacific Ocean would be the same size as it is today.
3. In Russia, the holes from Swiss Cheese are used to make fish food.
4. If all the people in Ames were to stand in a straight line, the first person in that line would get awfully tired standing.
5. If the governor of Ohio were made governor of Texas, cops would still be called "flat feet."
6. If Bezzer Knapp lost his voice—how quiet Ames High would be.

Serving the jewelry needs of Ames people for over a quarter century has made satisfied customers by the hundreds.

I did it not for Scorn
I gave her my School Bus seat
To get her off my corn.*

*Cry and the world cries with you
Laugh and you laugh alone
For its always the rule
That each darned fool
Can't see any joke but his own.*

*Gas was leaking in the Lab.,
He lit a match to find it.
The gas is leaking just the same,
But now he doesn't mind it.*

Cholera Cannibalis

*Once a Sophomore was cast on an African shore
Where a cannibal monarch held sway,
And they served up that Sophomore on one slice of toast
On the eve of the very same day.*

*But vengeance of Heaven followed swift on the act
And before the next morning was seen,
Fierce indigestion attacked the tribe
For that "Soph." was terribly green.*

Psalm of a Chem. Student

Mr. Harms is my hoodoo, I shall not pass. He maketh me burn late the candle, and rise up at dawn in the morning. He calleth my bluff; he dubbeth me "fool," and a "block-head," and filleth me full of confusion. Yea, though I do all my lab experiments and falleth not down on the results, he maketh me foolish by chiding me much on my warblings. He seeth my tricks when his back's turned, and standeth cross-legged to bawleth me out. He maketh much fun of my excuses; he snorteth in wrath at my answers; he showeth me up.

Truly, I'm right up against it, and am doomed to dwell here, now and forever.

To the Class of 1936

"You are the men and women to whom the world will look for leadership in the future.

"We have watched you grow up. We know the kind of stuff in you. We believe it is in you that this State and Nation finds greatest promise for a happy and prosperous future.

"We welcome you to the ranks of those whose privilege it is to work for the up-building of our country. We will be proud to share with you the responsibilities of citizenship."

THE SPIRIT for 1936

It has been a genuine pleasure for us to put your annual into book form for you. We have done our level best to please you. No pains have been spared to make it exactly as you wanted it.

We acknowledge the coöperation accorded us by Miss DeVaul, Miss Hiland, Mr. Smith, Mr. Arrasmith, Mr. Harms, and all the rest who met us more than half way in producing this book.

We like it. We hope you do.

THE stuff is writ—
The ink is dry.
The proof is read;
The end is nigh.
Now let us all

The SPIRIT's out!”
